

Bidders told to commit £1bn to future of Chelsea in four-way shootout

The remaining contenders to buy Chelsea FC have been told they must commit at least £1bn to future investment in the club if they are to succeed in the battle to end Roman Abramovich's two-decade tenure as owner of last season's Champions League-winners...

Read More