

Breaking news: Ukrainian President Zelensky invites Pope to Kyiv – UPI News

1/3 Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelensky spoke by phone with Pope Francis (pictured in December) Tuesday. The pope offered to mediate between Ukraine and Russia to help end the ongoing invasion and Zelensky invited him to visit the capital, Kyiv. File Photo by Stefano Spaziani/UPI | License Photo March 22 (UPI) – Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelensky spoke Tuesday with Pope Francis, who offered to mediate with Russia to help end the invasion, as Italy's prime minister voice support of Ukraine's bid to join the European Union. Zelensky addressed the Italian Parliament Tuesday and urged the country's lawmakers to freeze assets in that country owned by members of Russia's elite. "You know very well who orders troops to go to war and who propagates this. Almost all

Read More