

West has ‘responsibility’ to help with Pakistan floods as it caused climate change, minister claims

Richer countries have a “responsibility” to help Pakistan deal with flooding and prevent future disasters because they’ve caused climate change, its planning minister has said..

Read More